Loquacious (lo Kwa' shes)
 adj. 1. Talking or disposed to talk much or freely; talkative; chattering; babbling, garrulous; under the influence of the drug. 2. Bob Voreyer, Carleen Angelori, Marie Ella and Dennis Heaney were disposed to talk much or freely for the Junior class. Through much babbling, chattering and excessive talk they have managed to organize various fund raising activities such as bake sales, car washes and a See's sucker sale, which is still talked about today. 3. Mr. Krueger, the babbling class advisor has made the Junior year exciting and successful. 4. For most Juniors a new establishment has been discovered: "The Pizza Pantry," every Friday and Saturday night. The nights linger on full of laughter and gossip at D.W.'s house. 5. Finally we have two words dedicated to the people of the loquacious Junior class: For the guys "ESP" and the girls "H's".

M memories

(mem' or es) n. 1.

That which is remembered, as an act, event, person or thing. Whether happy, sad, or just in-between. 2. Little bits and pieces of laughter mixed with tears. 3. Paragraphs and pages, written through the years. 4. Friendships we remember. 5. Mistakes that we regret. 6. The ending of a love, we never could forget. 7. Since memories keep building, each day can be the start of making new and happy ones to store within the heart.

N

noisemaker

(noiz' māk' ar) 1. Our 1975-76 Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders 2. Won two spirit sticks at Santa Barbara cheerleading camp and trophy for "hardest working." 3. Will be attending competitions throughout the year. 4. Can be seen at every Varsity and Junior Varsity game.

N

newcomer (nu' kum' ers) 1.

A large group of newcoming freshmen, new students and returning friends. 2. On October 3, 1975 a Welcome Dance was held in honor of these newcomers. The gym was filled with fantastic music by "Asguard". 4. The band consisted of Dave Rampley as lead guitarest; Steve Siacotos on guitar and lead vocalist; Craig Gothardt playing the drums and vocal; and Rick Huffman on bass and guitar. 5. The entire night was a complete success and we hope to have many more dances like these in the future.

N necessity

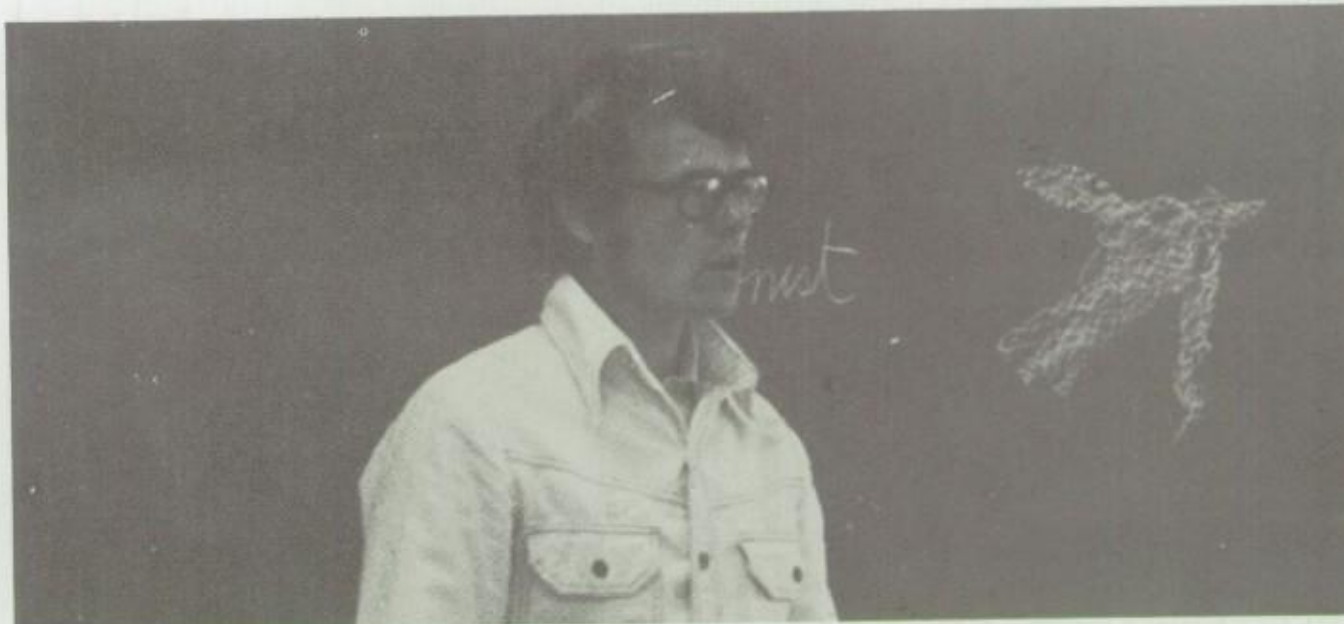

(ne ses' e ti) 1. The state of being necessary 2. Being of extreme need 3. Example: as in English teachers, without which a school would fall apart. They are extreme necessities. 4. Some of the necessities with which English teachers deal are: literature, speech, and writing. 5. At Crestmoor High School the Department Head is Mr. Norman "Necessary" Smith.

Perseverance (per s ver' ns) 1. To keep at in spite of difficulties; to persist. 2. Persevering seniors are led by class officers Gary Franzella, Karen Kristovich, Debbie Aragon, and Kim Pozzi.
3. Seniors persevered steadily for four years to survive Saturday night parties and then to make it to school by Monday. 4.
Determined graduates can be seen on Friday evenings "Cruising the EL" in search of extra curricular activities. 5. Seniors will continue to persevere after graduation in many different fields ... and bushes and trees and ... 6. Seniors can never forget the first time they ate the cafeteria food, their first welcome dance, their first shower, and waiting in line to get an admit.
